ALEXANDER SMITH VS PHILADELPHIA GAS WORKS

Vote 5-0.

- Complaint filed 7/9/12 alleging that there were incorrect charges on his bill, that PGW had falsely accused him of stealing gas and that he was using a gas water heater and range. He requested, inter alia, that an investigator visit his residence, and that he be provided with an analysis of his gas usage. PGW filed an Answer denying that there were incorrect charges on the bill or that it had falsely reported a gas range and water heater were on the fuel line. PGW stated that on 11/15/11, a Company technician was at the service address investigating a gas leak in the street and discovered that the Complainant's meter had a bypass and that a house heater, water heater, and gas range were all attached to the meter. PGW stated that it had billed the Complainant bypass charges in the amount of $6,443. In an Initial Decision, the ALJ granted the Complaint in part and denied it in part. Both Parties filed Exceptions on 4/3/14 and Replies on 4/14/14.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the Commission adopt the proposed Opinion and Order which grants the Exceptions of the Complainant, in part; denies the Exceptions of PGW; and modifies the Initial Decision.

SHIRLEY SURREC VS COLUMBIA GAS OF PA INC

Vote 5-0.

- Complaint filed on 2/26/14, stating that her house had been insulated and windows replaced as part of Columbia's energy assistance program. She alleged that her house is now in worse condition. She requested that Columbia either remove the insulation or reimburse her for the cost to have it removed. On 3/25/14, Columbia filed an Answer and New Matter as well as Preliminary Objections. Columbia alleged that the weatherization services were provided by a 3rd party. Columbia also averred that a quality assurance inspection failed to reveal any deficiencies. In its Preliminary Objections, Columbia argued that the Commission lacks jurisdiction to award damages and that the Complaint should be dismissed for legal insufficiency. On 4/3/14, the Complainant filed a response to the Preliminary Objections. On 4/11/14, the ALJ issued a Decision granting the Preliminary Objections and dismissing the Complaint. Exceptions were filed by the Complainant and Replies were filed by Columbia.
