Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

Please accept for re-filing in the above captioned proceeding the following Petition to Intervene of Pennsylvania Communities Organizing for Change (“PCOC”), made pursuant to 52 Pa. Code §§ 5.71-74. This re-filing is intended to correct an e-filing rejection associated with an e-filing of the Petition made on October 15, 2010. This re-filing is made pursuant to instructions received from the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission’s Secretary’s Bureau in an e-mail dated October 18, 2010.

All parties to this proceeding received notice of this Petition during the original filing. Notice was made by first class and electronic mail.

Thank you for your assistance, and please feel free to contact me directly should you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

PETITION TO INTERVENE OF PENNSYLVANIA COMMUNITIES ORGANIZING FOR CHANGE

TO THE HONORABLE PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION:

1. Pennsylvania Communities Organizing for Change ("PCOC"), through counsel, the Pennsylvania Utility Law Project, hereby Petitions to Intervene in the above-captioned proceeding pursuant to the provisions of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (PUC or Commission), 52 Pa. Code Sections 5.71-5.74, and states as follows:

3. Act 129 identifies low income customers as a specific group of customers designated to receive specific energy saving levels in the EE&C Plans.

   The Plan shall include specific energy efficiency measures for households at or below 150% of the federal poverty income guidelines. The number of measures shall be proportionate to those households' share of the total energy usage in the service territory.¹

4. The Commission, in its Implementation Order, noted:

   There are clear requirements in the Act regarding proportionate measures for low-income customers (within a residential customer class) as well as for governments, schools, etc. (within a commercial customer class). Beyond those requirements, we believe that EDCs should develop plans to achieve the most energy savings per expenditure.²

5. In an Order entered October 28, 2009, the Commission approved, with modifications, the Companies’ EE&C Plans, which included programs designed to provide specific energy efficiency and conservation services to low-income households and which included requirements for an ongoing stakeholder process of input into the EE&C Plans implementation and ongoing adaptation.³

6. On October 15, 2010, ACORN, the only intervener specifically representing the interests of low-income households, petitioned to withdraw from the proceeding and the stakeholder process, potentially leaving low-income households without an active intervener to exclusively represent low-income issues in the proceeding.

7. The Petitioner, PCOC, is a not-for-profit advocacy and membership organization whose mission is to advocate on behalf of low and lower income persons on numerous consumer issues, including access to and affordability of utility service. Many PCOC constituents reside within the Companies’ territory and are customers of the Companies; they rely on the Companies for their electricity, including heating and cooling needs, and will be affected by the issues presented in this ongoing proceeding. In particular, they are potentially eligible to participate in and receive the benefits of the Companies’ EE&C Plans; also they will share the costs of the EE&C Plans on ratepayers. They therefore have a direct, immediate, substantial, and distinct interest in this proceeding.

8. PCOC seeks to intervene to ensure that its interests and those of its constituents are protected and advanced in this proceeding. Given the withdrawal of ACORN, those interests are not adequately represented by other participants in this proceeding. ACORN’s withdrawal constitutes extraordinary circumstances sufficient to justify the Commission’s granting of this Petition to Intervene.

9. PCOC intends to address, among other issues, the ongoing impact of Act 129 EE&C Plan activities on low income households and whether the measures employed by the Companies comport with and satisfy Act 129 requirements.
WHEREFORE, PCOC respectfully requests that the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission grant this Petition to Intervene and make such other order as is just and appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,
