Re: Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission v.
PPL Electric Utilities Corporation
Docket No. R-2012-2290597

Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

I learned this morning that electronic filing of the Bureau of Investigation and Enforcement's (I&E) Replies to Exceptions (Replies) in the above matter was not completed as intended on November 19, 2012, but rather was only fully effectuated this morning. In light of the explanation provided below, I&E respectfully requests that you accept the Replies as timely filed.

As demonstrated in the enclosed copy from my sent email folder, I personally effectuated service of the Replies on all parties and the Office of Administrative Law Judge by electronic mail sent November 19, 2012, at 3:44 p.m. Service of hard copies was effectuated as indicated on the certificate of service attached to the Replies. I also personally effectuated service on all internal Commission offices, including the Commission's Executive Offices, the Office of Administrative Law Judge, and Office of Special Assistants, by accompanying I&E's new legal assistant to each office with the hard copies for delivery. Finally, by email sent at 3:51 p.m., I&E's legal assistant confirmed to me that the document had been e-filed with the Commission.

As I only discovered this morning, however, our legal assistant, who is new to I&E and the Commission, mistook uploading the electronic copy of the document for submission of the document for filing. As a result, actual e-filing of the document was not effectuated until this morning when the omission was discovered and the error was corrected. To this point, I have also enclosed a copy of I&E's electronic filing history from the Commission's website at this docket number, which was printed this morning. As the entry on page 2 of this filing history confirms, the document was uploaded for e-filing on November 19, 2012.

The Bureau of Investigation and Enforcement regrets the error in the electronic submission, and very much appreciates your consideration of this request and acceptance of the Replies as timely filed on the date uploaded into the Commission's e-filing process. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (717) 783-6155.

Sincerely,

Regina L. Matz
