SENATOR WAYNE D FONTANA
932 BROOKLINE BOULEVARD
PITTSBURGH PA 15226

RE: En Banc Transportation Hearing Participants

Dear Senator Fontana:

The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (Commission or PUC) will hold an en banc hearing on Thursday, August 28, 2014, at 9:00 a.m. to seek testimony regarding transportation industry issues in order to determine whether the Commission's current transportation regulations should be updated. The purpose of this Letter is to request that you present testimony and answer questions from the Commissioners regarding certain transportation issues.

The hearing will be held in Hearing Room 1 of the Commonwealth Keystone Building, 400 North Street, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The Commission's Office of Administrative Law Judge will manage the course of the hearing, which will be transcribed and recorded. This hearing is not an adversarial proceeding and companies may be represented by a partner, bona fide officer or employee of the company, in lieu of an attorney. See 52 Pa. Code § 1.21(c) (relating to appearance). The public is invited to attend.

The transportation issues to be addressed at the hearing by the invited participants, as related to whether the Commission should update its current regulations regarding these issues, are as follows:

- Adequacy of driver integrity regulations
- Adequacy of vehicle safety regulations
- Adequacy of current insurance requirements
- Elimination of the need standard
- Rules for "Transportation Network Companies"
- Enforcement of the Commission's transportation regulations
- Geographic scope of authority

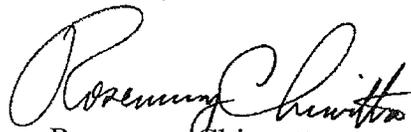

Invited participants are required to file their prepared testimony addressing these issues with the Secretary of the Commission no later than 4:00 p.m. on August 21, 2014. During the hearing, participants are asked to highlight or summarize their prepared testimony statements. We ask that all participants limit their remarks to 3-5 minutes. The Commissioners will then conduct question and answer sessions for each panel. Because of time constraints, power point presentations will not be permitted.

We remind participants that that the purpose of this hearing is for the Commission to gather information as to whether our presently existing transportation regulations should be revised or otherwise updated for the future. Participants MAY NOT testify regarding any matters that are the subject of a contested docketed proceeding currently pending before the Commission.

All documents related to the hearing, including prepared testimony statements and the final agenda for the hearing, will be posted on the Commission's website for public viewing at: www.puc.pa.gov > Consumer Info > Transportation > Motor Carrier > En Banc Transportation Hearing; or www.puc.pa.gov > Utility & Industry > Transportation > Motor Carrier > En Banc Transportation Hearing. The Commission will be video streaming the hearing on the Commission's website for those unable to attend the hearing in-person.

Please contact Krystle Sacavage, Assistant Counsel, directly at 717-787-5262 or by email at ksacavage@pa.gov no later than 4:00 p.m. on August 1, 2014, to confirm your participation in the hearing and to inform the Commission as to your preferred time to testify. General questions about the en banc hearing should be directed ra-pc-transenbanc@pa.gov.
