Re: Langeloth Townsite Company v. Pennsylvania-American Water Company,
Docket No. C-2009-2117744

Dear Secretary McNulty:

This concerns the Secretarial Letter issued in this proceeding on December 23, 2009. The Secretarial Letter directed Complainant, Langeloth Townsite Company, to have its Exceptions to the Initial Decision of Administrative Law Judge Kandace F. Melillo perfected and re-filed by legal counsel for Langeloth by no later than January 5, 2010. The Secretarial Letter further permitted Respondent, Pennsylvania-American Water Company (Pennsylvania-American), to file Reply Exceptions to the perfected Exceptions by no later than January 15, 2010.

This is to advise that Pennsylvania-American has not been served with perfected Exceptions, and that no perfected Exceptions have been posted to the Commission's Web site. Accordingly, Pennsylvania-American is not aware of any need to file Reply Exceptions. In the unlikely event that the Exceptions were in fact perfected and re-filed, Pennsylvania-American hereby incorporates the Reply Exceptions it previously filed in this matter on November 20, 2009. A hard copy of this letter is being provided to the Complainant in the manner indicated on the attached Certificate of Service.

Very truly yours,

Brian J. Knipe
