Re: Docket No. F-2009-2142265
(Morris v. PP&L Electric)

Dear Judge Weismandel:

I appreciate your recent telephone call to advise me that Frances Morris has entered my appearance in her action against PP&L Electric. As we discussed, I solely practice bankruptcy law and therefore have no intention of participating in a PUC matter. It is my belief that Ms. Morris simply thought the application requested information of any attorneys that she has employed. Enclosed is a copy of a letter that I have sent to Ms. Morris asking her to execute a notice effectively removing me from the matter and to forward it to your attention.

If you have any other questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

CUNNINGHAM & CHERNICOFF, P.C.

Tracy L. Updike

Re: Docket No. F-2009-2142265
(Morris v. PP&L Electric)

Dear Judge Weismandel:

Please accept this notice that I, Frances Morris, am indicating that my attorney Tracy L. Updike was incorrectly listed as representing me in the above-referenced matter. She is solely my bankruptcy attorney. At this time I do not have representation for my action against PP&L.

Very truly yours,

Frances O. Morris
