UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FEDERAL AVIATION ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE OF DRAFT GENERAL CONFORMITY DETERMINATION FOR THE PROPOSED PHILADELPHIA CAPACITY ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM APRIL 27, 2010

Effective today, April 27, 2010, the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) has issued a Draft General Conformity Determination (GCD) assessing the potential air quality impacts associated with the construction and operation of planned improvements at Philadelphia International Airport (PHL) to increase capacity and streamline operations as part of the Capacity Enhancement Program (CEP). The Draft GCD satisfies the public disclosure requirements of the General Conformity Regulations (40 CFR Part 51.103) and initiates a 30-day public comment period on the Draft GCD.

The Draft GCD was prepared to demonstrate that the PHL CEP improvements adhere to the requirements set forth in the Clean Air Act (CAA) and mitigating the air quality impacts expected to occur from implementation of the Project. The Draft GCD is available for public review online at <http://www.dh-cep-eis.com>. A limited number of hard copies are available for distribution and public inspection at the following libraries:

The Draft GCD for the PHL CEP addresses the potential air quality impacts from the construction and operation of the CEP improvements, including: extension of Runways 6-26 and 9R-27L; construction of an additional east-west taxiway; construction of an Engineered Materials Arresting System (EMAS) to reduce impacts to the terminal area and expansion of parking facilities; installation of an Automated People Mover (APM); navigational aids, utilities and drainage systems; relocation and expansion of support facilities related to maintenance fueling and de-icing operations; modifications to the on-airport roadway network; and the relocation of airport property.

The Draft GCD is available for public review online at <http://www.dh-cep-eis.com>. A limited number of hard copies are available for distribution and public inspection at the following libraries:

TAX SALE CONDITIONS OF SHERIFF SALE

The highest sum bid for each property auctioned off shall be deposited in cash, certified check, attorney money order with the sheriff by each bidder when his bid is registered, provided that in no case shall less than $500.00 be deposited. Otherwise, upon failure or refusal to make such deposit, the bidder's bid and the property may be immediately offered again and sold unless a second bid had been received. The second bidder will take the property at the highest bid price. The purchase money must be deposited in cash, certified check, attorney's check or money order. A deed poll for execution by the highest bidder to the Sheriff at his office within thirty (30) days from the time of extension of time or of an additional thirty (30) days may be granted at the discretion of the Sheriff upon request from the buyer, requesting the same, except where a second bid has been duly registered. Also, if the bidder does not complete settlement with the Sheriff within the thirty (30) day time limit and a second bid was received, the second bidder shall be granted the same thirty (30) day time limit to make settlement with the second bidder. Thereafter, the Sheriff shall be at liberty to return the writ to court. The bidder must be registered on any property immediately after it is sold. The second bidder must present the deposit that the highest bidder delivers to the Sheriff at the sale. An extension of time under no circumstances granted or honored by the Sheriff whenever a second bidder is registered on a property at the sale made by any bidder who fails to comply with the above conditions of sale shall be forfeited and the funds of the Sheriff's cost, then to any municipal claims that the City of Philadelphia has on the property. Finally, if the bidder claims a Sheriff Distribution Policy will be ordered and the money will be distributed accordingly. Checks, drafts or promises to pay will be accepted in lieu of cash, certified checks, attorney checks or money orders payable to the Sheriff of Philadelphia County. The bidder reserves the right to grant further extensions of time of settlement and further reserves the right to refuse to bid to those who have failed to enter deposits on their bids, failed to make settlement or make fraudulent bids or for which causes disruption of the Sheriff Sale. Said bidders shall be so refused for the sale in which said bid and for said further period of time as the Sheriff in his discretion shall determine. The bidder requires from each successful purchaser before settlement, certification from the Department of Revenue, Philadelphia, that the successful purchaser is not more than one year delinquent in paying real estate taxes on any property owned by said purchaser with the City of Philadelphia or that the purchaser is under agreement with Philadelphia for repayment of any taxes due the City. The Sheriff reserves the right to waive the requirements in when the said certification has been reasonably requested but has not been received. The bidder will not acknowledge a deed poll to any individual or entity using an unregistered fictitious name and may, at the bidder's option, require proof of the identity of the purchaser or the registration of a fictitious name. The bid of an unregistered name shall be forfeited as if the bidder failed to meet the terms of sale. The bidder is advised to remain at the sale until the last property is sold. The Sheriff reserves the right to resell any property before the end of the sale. Upon the successful bidder's failure to tender the required deposit.

ITS: All bidding starts at $800. Bidding is open and competitive. Each bidder must be prepared to deposit a successful bid in cash or certified check. However, $500 is the minimum deposit which will be accepted. City Solicitor

AMENDMENTS TO THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA'S CONSOLIDATED PLANS ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

The City of Philadelphia intends to amend the Year 35 Plans (FY 2010). The purpose of this amendment is to add the following activities:

On Page 43, Predevelopment Grants - The City proposes to provide up to $50,000 to Asociacion De Puerto Riqueños Et Marcha (APM) to support a market feasibility study for the Temple University Regional Mall Transit Oriented Development in North Philadelphia, a low and moderate income neighborhood. The funds will be transferred from otherwise unallocated Year 35 CDBG funds.

On Page 43, Neighborhood Development Grants - The City proposes to provide up to $250,000 to Allegheny West Foundation to support the development of a banquet hall and restaurant facility at 2850-52 N 52nd Street. This facility will provide much needed services to this low and moderate income neighborhood. The funds will be transferred from otherwise unallocated Year 35 CDBG funds.

On Page 38, Business Assistance - The City proposes to provide up to $476,655 to fund final PCDC expenditures. PCDC assisted commercial revitalization and small business development with the targeted Neighborhood Commercial Program. The allocated funds will be increased from $1,909,000 to $2,385,655. The funds will be transferred from prior year unallocated funds and Program Income.

On Page 39, Business Assistance - The City proposes to provide up to $500,000 to fund PCDC expenditures. PCDC undertakes various economic development activities, including but not limited to providing technical assistance, grants and loans to for-profit and non-profit entities which provide goods and services or create jobs which primarily benefit low and moderate income Philadelphia residents. The allocated funds will be increased from $953,000 to $1,453,000. The funds will be transferred from prior year unallocated funds and Program Income.

Comments on the proposed amendment should be mailed to Yvonne Boye, One Parkway #1515 Arch Street, 12th Floor, Philadelphia, PA 19102. E-Mailed to Yvonne.Boye@Phila.Gov or Faxed to (215) 557-8538. Yvonne.Boye before 4:00 PM, May 27, 2010.

If no comments are received, the City will proceed with the proposed amendment. If comments are received, they will be considered before finalizing the amendment. If modifications are made to the proposed amendment, the City will publish a notification of the finalized amendment. The effective date of the amendment, otherwise shall be July 1, 2009.
