Re: Verizon Pennsylvania Inc., Verizon North Inc., Bell Atlantic Communications, Inc. d/b/a Verizon Long Distance, Verizon Select Services Inc., Verizon Global Networks, Inc., MCI metro Access Transmission Services, LLC d/b/a Verizon Access Transmission Services, and MCI Communications Services Inc.

v.

Choice One Communications of Pennsylvania, Inc., CTC Communications Corp., and FiberNet Telecommunications of Pennsylvania, LLC
Docket Nos. C-20077672, C-20077674 and C-20077676

Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

Please accept this letter as the Motion of the Respondents for an extension of time to file Exceptions to the Recommended Decision ("R.D.") issued in the above-captioned proceeding. Specifically, the Respondents (Choice One Communications of Pennsylvania, Inc., CTC Communications Corp., and FiberNet Telecommunications of Pennsylvania, LLC) respectfully request an additional ten (10) days to file their Exceptions to the R.D. The requested ten day extension would make the deadline for filing Exceptions July 17, 2010.

Please note that the Complainants in this case have consented to the grant of the ten-day extension. Furthermore, in accordance with 52 Pa. Code § 1.15, the Respondents can demonstrate good cause for granting the requested extension, as set forth more fully below.

After three years of pleadings, evidentiary hearings, mediation, briefing, and supplemental briefing, the R.D. in this consolidated proceeding was issued on Thursday, June 17, 2010. Accordingly, under 52 Pa. Code §5.533 Exceptions to the R.D. are currently due on or before July 7, 2010.

Secretary Chiavetta

A 10-day extension to the Exceptions filing period is warranted in this case for several reasons. First, while the R.D. was issued by the Secretary's Bureau on June 17, the R.D. was not received by Respondents' counsel until Monday, June 21, as indicated on the attached copy of the Secretarial Letter which accompanied the R.D. Therefore, by the time the R.D. was received, only 16 days remained to file Exceptions to the R.D.

Secondly, the 16-day period between the receipt of the R.D. and the deadline for Exceptions includes the extended July 4th holiday weekend and another weekend, thereby further limiting the number of working days that can be devoted to analyzing the R.D. and drafting Exceptions.

Additionally, all of the Respondents' attorneys who have entered their appearances in this proceeding were, or will be, out of their respective offices for multiple days attending to family obligations during the Exceptions period. Respondent's counsel John Dodge was in Maine, with limited access to phone, internet and email, from June 25 through June 28. Michael Gruin was in Massachusetts from June 23 through June 27 for a family wedding, and Renardo Hicks departed on June 30 for an extended overseas trip to attend his oldest daughter's wedding in the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Furthermore, it must be noted that this proceeding involves highly complex issues of fact and law that will have serious policy implications for the telecommunications industry in Pennsylvania. These consolidated cases have taken nearly three full years to litigate, and they include voluminous evidentiary records. The cases also have significant financial implications for both the Complainants and the Respondents. Therefore, both the public interest and the rights of the parties will be served by allowing 10 additional days to fully examine the many facets of the R.D. and develop thorough and refined Exceptions for the Commission's review. Additionally, it should be noted that in a nearly identical case involving the same complex issues as the present case, the Commission granted the Respondents a 10-day extension for the filing of Exceptions. See Verizon Pennsylvania, Inc., et al, v. Penn Telecom, Inc., Docket No. C-200656987 (Opinion and Order issued August 29, 2008), at footnote 1. The same extension is warranted here.

Thank you for your consideration of this request. If you have any questions in connection with this request, please feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,

STEVENS & LEE

Michael A. Gruin
