IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

IN THE MATTER OF : Docket No. C - 2010 - 2163584

WILBERT THOMAS

v.

Met -Ed METROPOLITAN EDISON COMPANY

MOTION . TIME ENLARGEMENT .

The Commission is herein made petition of time enlargement by the complainant due to the overriding principle of fairness. Fairness to Met - Ed as well as to the complainant . Due to gathering facts from professional others like the professor at M I T the fact of time and willingness to help is dependent upon that source a reasonable mind can conclude .

As the Commission may recall to mind that the initial confoundedness was about winking / blinking lights , the huge cost increase which Met - Ed never did tie down and thus .consequently the burned wires and the complainant's destroyed A D T intruder alarm center . Therefore, because of the principle of fairness and that any reasonable mind could use the presented facts and conclude a thing is acting upon the wires to burn and make them brittle which is making them unusable , and some energy is waxing and waning causing the phenomenon /wink / blink .

The service you provide is may be causing my house lights to wane , and wax , blink , and wink , indicating a net work problem as opposed to a circuit (house circuit) problem .

Dear Met - Ed :

the problem is winking , blinking , waning , and waxing lights in my house , and I should like it to stop .

As the electrical engineer has explained it to me it is the power company or another source . Thus ,then Met - Ed please check the network that I pay you for service from , and see if my light problem is based in your network , thank you .

Please respond in writing that your response shall be available in writing , and not by telephone which shall help a lot .

INRE: Thomas' concern about a complaint that has been constant .

PUC:

This complaint has to do with the light problem being experienced by Thomas , and also the huge cost increase of the last billing period . You'll please find enclosed the billing information ; but as too the cause of Thomas' light problem the Met- ed or in house please get an answer in writing . that is tie down the response in the written word .

Thank you PUC.The enclosures are : Bills August 2 , 2007 , and currently due bill . Please note the big difference from June 20 , 2008 .

In re: Letter packet pertaining to Met-Ed 's findings : winking , blinking lights ; brittle burned house wire .

Dear Sir :

Met-Ed thank you for looking earnestly into this problem which Thomas has with the lights at this residence .Right now your request can not be fulfilled strictly speaking because the data from the professor at MIT has not arrived . As stated earlier to you and your colleagues the wires are brittle " , because of heat ;they have been burned ."
says The senior Yeager of Yeager Electric , as well as winking , blinking lights . Thank you for granting more study time and exercising tolerance
