To Whom It May Concern

I wrote PUL last year about the PPL charges of about two hundred and fifty dollars. I would never have allowed this bill to balloon that way. And neither would PPL. I lived in apartment

#38 of building 719 on Linden street. My apartment needed repair. My landlord George Polgas offered me apartment #26. When I moved PPL was supposed to transfer my electric service from #38 to #26. Not only did PPL not transfer service. They allowed the new tenant of apt. #38 to run up the bill in question. His name is Dave Collette. My landlord tried to explain this to PPL. They would not listen. And he like a fool mailed both bills back to PPL. Now they act as if it never happened. Even if I loose my case. Can someone please make a note of this incident. Maybe this action could prevent PPL from doing it again.

Sincerely,
D. G. Lusk
