RE: Letter of Notification PPL Electric Utilities Corporation, Filed Pursuant To 52 Pa. Code Chapter 57, Subchapter G, For The Reconstruction Of A Section Of The West Hempfield-Prince #1 And #2 138 KV Transmission Lines In Manheim Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, Docket No. P-2010-2203049

Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

Enclosed please find copies of separate letters from Norfolk Southern Corporation, PPM, Inc., and Lancaster County Solid Waste Management Authority. As explained in the Letter of Notification, which was filed on September 30, 2010, these three entities are all of the owners of land that is subject to the right-of-way for the above-reference relocation project. In these letters, the landowners explain that they do not oppose PPL Electric Utility Corporation's proposed relocation of a portion of the West Hempfield-Prince #1 and #2 138 kV transmission lines.

Very truly yours,

John H. Isom

Dear Mr. Levitski:

I am writing in reference to PPL's request before the Pennsylvania Utility Commission (PUC) regarding the replacement of PPL's poles in connection with the proposed new rail yard project in Manheim Township.

Norfolk Southern Railway Company has no issues with this project or the relocation of PPL's poles along the Norfolk Southern right-of-way and has no intention to comment to the PUC about your application. We also have no concern with the immediate start of construction of foundations for the new poles.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Levitski:

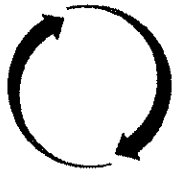

I am writing in reference to PPL's request before the Pennsylvania Utility Commission (PUC) regarding the replacement of your poles in connection with Norfolk Southern's new rail yard project in Manheim Township.

The Northwest Business Park has no issues with this project nor the relocation of your poles along the Norfolk Southern right-of-way, so long as it does not modify or alter the use already approved on the contract dated August 16th, 2010 and executed by the Northwest Business Park Unit Owners Association on August 31st, 2010. We also have no concern with the immediate start of construction of foundations for the new poles.

Sincerely,
