RE: Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission v. Aqua Pennsylvania, Inc.
Docket No. R-2009-2132019, et al.

Dear Judge Jones:

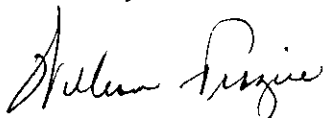

The purpose of this letter is to give my brief reason, why you should not recommend approval of the proposed Settlement.

We are going through a recession now, with people losing their jobs and homes. Therefore I don't believe this is a good time to be raising utility rates. Every utility company is putting in requests for rate increases. The economy is suppose to be bad, but prices are steadily rising. How do they expect people to pay these increases, when they are losing their jobs?

My wife and I are on fixed incomes. Social Security did not give us cost of living increases this year. The estimated 6.5% increase to our bill means we will have to cut back on something else. This rate increase will present some economic hardships for the elderly.

Thank you for you time in this matter.

Sincerely,

William Frazier &
Yvonne Frazier
