You may pay an additional charge for additional insurance up to the actual value of the package(s) lost or damaged, but may not exceed the maximum allowable declared value(s) or the total declared value, whichever is less. You are responsible for proving the actual loss or damage.

We will not be liable for any damage, whether general, special, or consequential, in excess of the actual value of a shipment, whether or not FedEx had insured such damages might be incurred, including loss of income or profits.

Declared Value Limits

- The highest declared value allowed for a FedEx Envelope or FedEx Pak shipment is $500.
- For other shipments, the highest declared value allowed is $50,000 unless your package contains terms of extraordinary value, in which case the highest declared value allowed is $1,000.
- Items of extraordinary value include shipments containing such items as artwork, jewelry, furs, precious metals, negotiable instruments, and other items listed in the current FedEx Service Guide.
- You may send more than one package on this Airbill and fill in the total declared value for all packages, not to exceed the $500, $1,000, or $50,000 per package limit described above.
