Dear Mr. Bingeman:

Enclosed is a letter from our client, Patrick J. Hoopes, requesting a rescission of his declination of PUC operating authority. Apparently, the Form H filing was mailed by the insurance carrier to your office, but there is no record of it on file. The carrier did mail a second filing by overnight mail which you should have by this date.

Thank you for your consideration of this reinstatement request. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Bingeman:

Please consider this a request to rescind the dismissal notice issued for my PUC operating authority. The Form E liability filing was filed in a timely manner, and the Form H Cargo filing was requested from my insurance carrier on March 24, 2011 (although I may qualify as being waived of this requirement).

The insurance carrier records show the filing was mailed on March 24, 2011, and today they have sent a new Form H filing to your office using overnight mail with a return receipt requested. This form should be on file upon your receipt of my letter.

Please reinstate my authority immediately. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Patrick J. Hoopes
