DEAR MADAM

Am writing in reference to a letter I got from your office dated march 14, 20011.

The docket number is C-2011- 2227552 stating," I failed to pay an outstanding amount of $ 500.00".which was sent to my old address. I called for clarification and I was told your office sent me a letter saying my insurance has been cancelled which I never received any letter from your office.

Moreover, I do not live at my old address anymore. I have called the office several times to change the address to my new address but it seems the office keeps on mailing letters to my old address.

I have always had insurance on my car, the misunderstanding is coming from the fact that I changed insurance companies, and the new one was may be not sent to your office. I changed from progressive to state farm, with policy effective date of ...NOVEMBER 21, 2010...toMAY 21, 2011.

Also this is a job I do once and in while, I make less than $5000.00 a year. And have not even worked for a long time due to the fact that am in school.

Am hopeful your office will make the necessary corrections so I can keep my P.U.C. license. Thanks for your advanced cooperation on this issue.

Sincerely yours

Akwasi Abisah
