Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

A complaint has been filed in the above-captioned matter and an answer is due December 27, 2011. By this letter Windstream D&E Systems ("Company") hereby requests an extension of time in which to provide an answer and any other responsive pleadings to the above-referenced complaint.

The Company has been in contact with the customer's counsel. The parties are working through some of the factual issues in the complaint and will require more time to address these issues.
