TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
RE: Appealing The Court Decision

I am appealing The Court decision concerning the payment arrangement of one year to pay my arrearage which is about $5000. First of all PPL introduced to me a supplier that was charging me a huge lump sum of money every month on one side, while PPL was still charging me on a monthly basis for my electricity bill too which brought my bill to this point.

Been a single person has the head of household with one income to provide for my family, I will need more time to pay for that huge electricity bill. One year is too short to make that kind of a payment , I need more time to pay this because I still have to deal with PPL every month while lam paying this debt that PPL claimed I owed. Your thoughtful consideration of this matter will be greatly appreciated.
