RE: Docket Number C-2011-2266920

Dear Judge Dunderdale

As per your request on February 21, 2012, I am explaining why I was absent from the telephone hearing of February 16, 2012.

On December 23, I changed cell phone providers. I had been with my previous provider for fourteen years, and between the Christmas and New Year holidays, I failed to inform numerous entities of my number change. In the middle of January, I informed all the entities I could think of. However, it appears that I failed to notify your office of my number change. For this I apologize to both you and Mr. Ralston. I realize this does not provide for a foundation to prevent a dismissal of my case. However, I am asking that any dismissal be ceased, and a new hearing scheduled.

Thank you for your time.
