RE: Mary F. Kingrade v. Philadelphia Gas Works; C-2009-2134662
C-2010 277-8854

Dear Judge Vero:

Complainant Mary F. Kingrade received an overnight package from the defendant, PGW, dated November 21, 2011.

By the Court, Complainant was given a date of (1) one week being the deadline date of November 25, 2011 to respond to defendant's correspondence that was received 11-21-2011. This action gave complainant only (4) four days to respond to the defendant and to the Court.

The defendant was not in compliance with the Court order issued October 19, 2011. The deadline date was November 18, 2011 not November 21, 2011.

Complainant stands by her request that the defendant PGW be charged and sanctioned for "contempt of Court".

Complainant under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment pleads: no state shall deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

The issue is not PGW policies or PGW's disciplinary measures. The issue at hand is PGW violation of the PA. one call system law and the underground utility line protection law, as underground pipes were placed on my property without notification.

PGW's action has directly affected the safety of the complainant and the residents of the 5500 block of Warrington Ave. PGW abiding by the law would have prevented this claim from ever being filed.

No one is above the law. PGW broke the law and should be held accountable.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

CC: PGW
Laureto Farinas Esq.

Respectfully,
Mary F. Kingsdale
