TO: PUC Commissioners,
Reg: PPL Account#5543853019
SS#050-585049

F2010-2184996

In reply to the July nineteen, two thousands and twelve closing notification of my case received from PUC Commission Secretary, Rosemary Chiavetta stating the consideration and disposition(complaint) filed on January nineteen, two thousands and twelve, to the initial decision of Judge Ember S., Jandebeur was denied.

Please reconsider this urgent and desperate matter of my request for additional time to repay my electric account arrearage. As a single individual with two children to provide for, my earned income of $49,257.26 is not permitting me to pay PPL in full at this present time; however, I am paying as much as possible to catch with the monthly charge of my account with PPL.

I felt several items were overlooked in reaching a decision to close my case without seeing another to present my case. For instance, be mindful of the following expenses: 1- Food, Medical expenses, insurances, taxes, mortgage, student loan.

I am still pleading to speak to another Judge, grant me this opportunity as a Citizen. Please reconsider my request, I don't want to live in the dark with two under age children. Should you require additional information, feel free to contact me at your earliest convenience: 353 Skyline Drive, Blakeslee, PA 18610

Truly Yours,

M. Innocent
