Complainant's Reply to the New Matter of Respondent

And now comes the Complainant and files the following Reply to the New Matter of the Respondent and in support thereof avers as follows;

1. In response to paragraph 9 of the Respondent's New Matter, the complainant incorporates by reference thereto Paragraphs 1 through 8 of the Complainant's complaint as though the same were set forth herein at length.

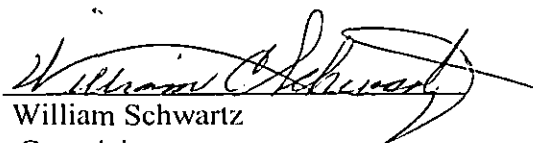

2. Paragraph 10 of the Respondent's New Matter is denied as stated. Respondent's allegations and all previous demands seek to characterize the Complainant's pipes in question as "commercial service pipes" but lack any specific identification of the "commerce" or industry in which the Complainant is allegedly involved. In further reply, the Complainant hereby demands proof at the time of hearing that the Complainant's pipes in question or his property are used in any way or manner for commercial purposes. The balance of the respondent's averments are irrelevant to the issues in this case and are conclusions of law to which no reply is required. To the extent that a reply is required, the respondent's averments are denied and proof of the same, to the extent that they are relevant to the issues in this case, is hereby demanded at the time of hearing.

WHEREFORE, Complainant requests that the New Matter of the Respondent be dismissed.

I, William Schwartz, the Complainant herein, hereby state that the facts above set forth are true and correct (or are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief) and that I expect to be able to prove the same at a hearing held in this matter.
