v.

KELLEN KREGER
2278 N WILLIAMSON ROAD
COVINGTON PA 16917

IN REFERENCE TO: DOCKET NO. C-2013-2340503

REGARDING : CERTIFICATE of PUBLIC CONVENIENCE A-8913440

I received the complaint letter which I was surprised to see. I had a discussion with my accountant regarding my Public Utility Commission account and she had informed me that the account was closed along with my EIN number, and Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation account. After further discussion with the accountant there was a miscommunication in notifying the Public Utility Commission of closure of the business.

The truck in question that was using the referenced above Public Convenience Certificate was sold back on October 24, 2012. There is no longer an operating business to cease and desist. When the insurance account for the truck was closed was after the time that we had sold the truck and could no longer be out of compliance with the Public Utility Commission.

I no longer own a truck to operate under our PUC number and wish to relinquish this certificate. I also request that the account be closed and the $500 dollar fine be waived as we have not violated the policy in question because we have not operated a truck without the required insurance. I kept the insurance on the truck until the day that we sold it. I apologize for the miscommunication that led to this complaint. My accountant notified me that she had sent the resignation letter back in October when in fact she had not. She sent the resignation letter out on 12-31-12.

Once again I apologize for the inconvenience and will consider this matter closed.
