To Rosemary Chiavetta, secretary

Hello my name is David Ranelli co-owner of Family Transport Service. I do acknowledge that I did receive letters from PUC and now am trying To recify the problem I am responding to the complaint (docket C-2012-2326249).

We have paid $ 783.00 last month and plan on paying the fine. That was set at $ 1000.00 this is our first time of having any,problem in years With the commission. I do like to run a honest company which we do and are Honest doing so. When I report our income I have forgotten in past too put Down the amount that would be from the county or school. By not doing this, Now we are in a situation that I would like to put behind us.

We do on paying this but I am asking you and the judge to allow Us a little more time, do too the economy slowed down, and the Gov. has cost us a change in contract with the state and county. Our income is mostly from The state, county and school contract. Income from the outside public only is about a small percentage. In feb our insurance is renewed and we need will Need $ 4000.00 down and this will make a hard ship on us. I am asking for A little more time maybe 90 days or less to make this right if you still fine us Still guilty of not making payment sooner.

We are just a small company trying to service handicap needs And elderely, which is needed so much. Thank you for your understanding.
