Dear Secretary Chiavetta;

With due respect, please be advised that your letter to DLC's Jennifer Allison dated 1-23-2012 should have been dated 1-23-13, contains other factual errors. I wrote to Chairman Powelson on 1-14-2013 to explain my problems with DLC and the PUC, you had noted that I had written on 1-14-2012. You also noted Docket C-2011-2231294 was referenced in that letter that was my error the correct number was C-2012-2297124. Complaint C-2011-2231294 was closed in November of 2011, when I informed DLC's Attorney Krysia Kubiak, that I would accept the offer of $300 for the initial period of DLC's overbilling. Your directive to DLC's Allison was dated 1-23-12, this letter should have been dated 1-23-2013. Your correspondence clearly sets forth the specific dates in accordance with 52 PA code 5.533. The date for me was 1-31-13 and was complied with, the date for Allison was 2-10-13 and was not complied with. This marks the second time she has violated a PUC directive and not been admonished for her unethical behavior. Therefore, I will not participate in a hearing on this matter where-in Allison is permitted to file reply exceptions in the instant case. I might add, her proposed exceptions are fraught with errors.

Please notify Chairman Powelson and the Office of Special Assistants I will serve a copy on Jennifer Allison. Also, I mistakenly noted in my 1-13-2013 letter to Chairman Powelson, that the erroneous DLC billings occurred in 2012, they actually occurred in 2011.

Thank you and your board for the indulgence in this matter.

Sincerely,

James E. Creehan

Cc: J. L. Allison
