COMPLAINANT'S SECOND MOTION TO STAY MARCH 22, 2013 HEARING

COMES NOW Complainant RICHARD COPPOLA submitting his second Motion to Stay the March 22, 2013 hearing.

1. The commission has been advised through various motions, motion responses, discovery and other requests, and correspondence directed to the presiding officer that discovery is ongoing and not closed and that Complainant would not be prepared for evidentiary hearing(s) until such time as discovery is closed. Presently, there are outstanding and unresolved issues including but not limited to discovery issues and requests, motion(s), notices, objections, and discovery. Conducting the March 22, 2013 hearing without completed discovery and before Complainant is prepared is a violation of Complainant's due process rights, inappropriate, and exceedingly prejudicial to Complainant's case.

WHEREFORE Complainant respectfully requests that the Presiding Officer GRANT Complainant's second request to STAY the March 22, 2013 evidentiary hearing until such time that discovery has been completed and closed and the Complainant and parties are ready for trial.
