Dear Mr. Park:

The American Civil Liberties Union of Pennsylvania's legal department has reviewed your complaint. Unfortunately we are unable to offer you legal counsel at this time.

The ACLU of Pennsylvania is a privately funded non-profit organization that seeks to preserve and extend certain constitutional principles, most of which are found in the Bill of Rights. ACLU carries out its mission through political lobbying and public education, and also by undertaking a limited number of legal cases in which a person's or persons' civil liberties have been violated. Our office, however, has only one full-time attorney on staff, making it impossible to accommodate every individual seeking our assistance.

We recommend that you contact the following organizations:

Pennsylvania Bar Lawyers Referral Service
P.O. Box 186
Harrisburg, PA 17108
Phone: 1-800-692-7375
Website: <http://www.pabar.org/public/Membership/lrsblurb.asp>

It may be less expensive to simply seek the advice of a private attorney as opposed to retaining an attorney to represent you.

Although we cannot guarantee their assistance, they may be better able to help you with your complaint. We are sorry our office cannot do more for you.

Sincerely,

THE AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION OF PENNSYLVANIA
