Your Honor:

I received by fax, this morning, from Mr. Park a large group of documents, supplemented by his commentary, that I presume are what he wishes to supplement the record with. While my position is that none of these documents are even remotely relevant, and none of his commentary is, frankly, even intelligible, I have no objection to their being admitted into evidence.

Thank you,

Mr. Ralston:

I received the attached voicemail from Douglas Park requesting to submit late-filed evidence regarding the hearing held on February 15, 2013. I am ready to draft the Initial Decision on the case, and I am willing to allow this evidence if there is no objection from PPL. Please contact Mr. Park and let me know next week the company's position on this issue.
