Dear Ms. Chiavetta:

I could not afford to pay $301.00 and I told them that we are on SSI. myself & a disabled child that needs 24/7 care. I never had a problem w/ PP&L up until 2012-2013.

I have been in Bankruptcy since 1998, from a bad marriage. A veteran. That's why its a VA loan.

I sent you the proof I was only paying $3.00 a month no matter if I was off the on track program.

I also have the proof from all my Bankruptcies. And PP&L did know all the other times I was. I sent that as proof for the on track program.

Yes they sent me a letter from the on-track program, But AP&L still had me pay $3.00 month. I sent you the proof.

It did not matter that I deal - (all these years since 1998)
not ~~to~~ tell them about my Bankruptcy because the only thing that is in my Bankruptcy is The Mortgage Only.

You have the proof about Churches helping me also.

My income is limited.

PP & I did not write all the information when they responded to you.

If I have to - I'll go to the media about this.

You cannot go back 2 years & add money on. Plus they changed my account # for no reason.

They never did before all these years,
& now all of a sudden they do
now. ITS wrong.

All they want is money.

You have proof of all papers I sent to you.

It is wrong!

Do not close this.

It is wrong what they did.

I will go back to the attorney general and talk to that lawyer. I want this solved the right way.

P.P.S. I is wrong. So please fight for me.

Thank you,
Chris Fetherly
