RE: PPL Electric Utilities Corporation v Mimose Innocent
Docket# F-2013-2360608

PA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION
SECRETARY'S BUREAU

Dear Ms. Chiavetta:

In reply to the PPL Attorney's letter of opposition dated May 20, 2013 to you for me not to be granted the privilege to go before the administrative Judge. All of the multiple reasons presented by the Attorney not to let me go forward with my case are inappropriate.

I am still entitled to be given the opportunity to present my case before a Judge as a U.S. Citizen. Please I am waiting for a favorable response from you. The unfairness practices of PPL to its Customers must be stopped.

I have been making huge payments of $1200, $800, $600, $600 etc. to PPL each month during the Spring Season in order to bring the balance down, they never brought it down. My bill account with PPL is like a credit card.

Sincerely Yours,

M. Innocent
