As previously set out in Prehearing Order #1, dated April 25, 1997, Respondent PECO is directed to publish a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area where each public input hearing is scheduled, at least three weeks in advance of the scheduled public input hearing. This notice, which includes the date, time and location of the public input hearing, is to be in plain language. It also must advise people with disabilities to contact the Commission if they need alternative arrangements in order to participate in the public input hearing.

Further, respondent PECO is directed to have a plain language explanation of the reasons for its filing available at each public input hearing.
