To The Secretary concerning my Electric Bill with Peco Energy

I would like to Ask For understanding THAT I don't have the Expertise to use different case's As A Reference OR big words to make A case. But what I do have I believe was not only over looked But was used Against me because I didn't have Legal Representation, I respect what I believe Administrative Law Judge Kandace F. Melillo, Tried to do For me in the hearing on the Phone with Council For Peco Energy, But

I still Feel Like NOT only WAS I NOT Represented, but There WAS NO Real point of TRYing To work
The situation out, Which is why I Involved The Public Utility Commission in The First Place. I Asked To Know First how much I owed Peco Energy And could we make An Agreement That WAS Fair Based on How much Money I have coming into my home And THAT IT WAS something I could Afford. I've Been TRYing to keep up with 400.00 Every 2 weeks, but it's A little to much. IT START'S An Effect on other bills THAT I HAVE.

To Be Addressed Each Month.

Each Time That I Tried To Make An Agreement With Peco, They would start me with paying An amount THAT There's no way I can Afford. I don't have 8,000.00 dollars To put down to start out paying them but I will agree that if given A Fair chance not only will I pay my bill but be A better customer.
I TRYED TO Explain About me being ~~injured~~ Injured on ~~my~~ my Job And THAT I WAS Awaiting Settlement. IT is in The near Future, THAT it will be settled And I will pay off Peco Energy. In MY Attempt TO TRY TO Explain Why

The different things happen to me concerning my bill I WAS NOT given a fair chance to explain why things happen the way they did but with anyone in the position I WAS in they would have done the same thing. In conclusion if my bill was really looked at you would ^{see} THAT ~~most~~ most of my bill is charges and not what I really owe. I just received a bill that says I owe over 19,500.00 dollars when clearly I've been paying 800.00 dollars a month for the last 5 months. This is just one of the reasons that I'm questioning how I'm being billed and if it's right.

Please take this seriously because
