ORDER REVISING PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

On March 23, 2000, PECO Energy Company (PECO) filed with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, on behalf of a number of parties to this proceeding and itself, a Joint Petition for Settlement (Settlement Petition). The Settlement Petition included a request by the signatory parties for modification of the existing procedural schedule.<sup>1</sup>

The signatory parties' request for a modification of the procedural schedule was addressed at the public input hearing held at the Philadelphia State Office Building on March 27, 2000, at 1:00 p.m. The parties appearing at that public input hearing included PECO, the Office of Consumer Advocate, the Office of Small Business Advocate, the Office of Trial Staff and Consumer Education and Protective Association (CEPA), et al.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The existing procedural schedule was established during the prehearing conference held on January 20, 2000. That schedule was memorialized in my prehearing order dated January 28, 2000. On March 17, 2000, I granted the parties' request to change the due date for intervenor written direct testimony from March 24 to March 28, 2000.

EEF

The signatory parties' proposed revised schedule was rejected. The following revised procedural schedule<sup>3</sup> was established:

March 23, 2000	Settlement Filed
March 27 – April 4, 2000	Public Input Hearings (as previously scheduled)
April 13, 2000	Objections or Comments to Settlement filed and due in-hand
April 18, 2000	Replies to Objections or Comments to Settlement filed and due in-hand

If an objecting party desires to continue to litigate the case, that party must make a specific request in its filed Objections to continue to litigate.

After the filing of Replies to Objections or Comments, the presiding officer will determine whether it is necessary to hold evidentiary hearings. A second prehearing conference may be held, if necessary, for the purpose of establishing a new schedule for the filing of written testimony and holding evidentiary hearings.
