Re: Request an extended time to file Exceptions
Case No. C-2012-2326167
Case Title: Yi Jing Groeber vs. Verizon Pennsylvania Inc.

Dear Ms. Chiavetta:

Since I received from Public Utility Commission ("PUC") the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law Judge on July 19, 2013, I have called PUC office numerous times asking if I could ask for an extended time to file the Exceptions. I could not get an answer from anyone I talked except the Honorable Angela Jones whom I called on August 5, 2013. Yesterday I reached Kim Hafner and obtained your office fax number.

The hearing for this case was held on March 13, 2013. I had expected to receive Judge Jones's decision somewhere around mid of June, as I was told it would take 90 days for a decision to be delivered. The date in Judge Jones decision was July 5, 2013, which was much later than I expected; however, the date PUC sent the decision was July 17, 2013 and so it took almost two weeks for the decision to reach me. Or total 128 days from the date of the hearing.

Accidentally or coincidentally, the decision came to me at times I was deeply involved in another case. As I am pro se filer needing extra time to do research. I request that PUC grant me another 20 days or longer to respond.

I would appreciate your understanding and consideration.

Sincerely,

Yi Jing Groeber
