Rosemary Chiavetta, Secretary
Pennsylvania PUC.

This letter is in response to Docket No. C-2013-2389750.

Dear Friend,

I was in a trucking business moving equipment. This business went to a level that I was unable to make a living so I decided to change careers. I ended this business as of May 30, 2013. Previous to this I contacted my insurance company, Northland Insurance, and had them send me paper work as to cancel as of May 30, 2013. I received the invoice for the fees for PUC and wrote on the invoice that I was out of business and sent it in. I am sorry that I missed the link of sending a letter to let PUC know that I was out of business. I have not used any privileges that the PUC licensed me for since May 30, 2013. I have received a second invoice for fees from PUC in the amount of $182.00. This is a correction from the first invoice. Again I apologize for not sending in writing to PUC that I was out of business. I will wait for a response as to what to do about the fees for this year.

Sincerely,

Daniel G. Jackson.
