National Power Source Capabilities to operate in the Pennsylvania Electric markets as a Broker

National Power Source is a national broker of natural gas and electricity to large and small commercial customers. In business since 2006 National Power Source has placed many natural gas and electric accounts in the deregulated energy markets. These accounts have seen significant savings documented by savings analysis reports. Michael Riester is the principal owner and operator of National Power Source. Michael has over 25 years of experience in the energy markets. Currently he works with small to medium size commercial, Industrial and Government accounts on a national basis. Michael also has a degree in Geological Sciences and a Masters in Business Administration from the SUNY at Buffalo.

Capabilities:

National Power Source has developed the infrastructure that is needed to process the accounts that we would serve in the Pennsylvania market. National Power Source will have sales representatives living in Pennsylvania and actively servicing accounts. We have the ability to track the customer from the start of the contract through the renewal stage. National Power Source has contractual arrangements with many reputable suppliers licensed to operate in the Pennsylvania electric markets.

National Power Source is licensed in the state of Maryland and Ohio (Certificate # 12-591E (1))

Staff

National Power Source has an operations manager, sales manager and 5 sales representatives to manage the client's accounts.
