PREHEARING CONFERENCE MEMORANDUM Of INTERSTATE GAS SUPPLY, INC.

BEFORE PRESIDING ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE CYNTHIA W. FORDHAM:

Pursuant to a the Prehearing Order issued April 3, 2014, Interstate Gas Supply, Inc. d/b/a IGS Energy (“IGS”) by and through its counsel in the above-captioned matter, Hawke McKeon & Sniscak LLP, and hereby submits its Prehearing Conference Memorandum. IGS states as follows:

A. Representative

IGS will be represented in the above-captioned matter by the following counsel. Please serve counsel copies of all pleadings hereafter filed in this matter and should be included on the service list as the entry for both parties.

Attorney I.D. No. 75556

B. Discovery

IGS is agreeable to modification of the normal discovery rules to allow for shorter response times due to the compressed nature of this proceeding. IGS proposes, to the extent consistent with proposals of other parties, and as an additional provision that all parties agree to accept electronic service of all documents with follow-up delivery of hard copy by first-class mail and that service of any document that requires a response by another party that is served after 12:00 noon on a Friday, be considered to have been served on the next business day for purposes of calculating the response time.

C. Schedule

IGS has reviewed the proposed procedural schedule set forth by the Company and can agree to that schedule. To the extent that other parties seek to deviate from the proposed schedule, IGS will endeavor to accommodate changes. Otherwise, we will work with the parties to achieve a schedule that is adequate for the needs of all.

D. Witnesses

At this juncture, IGS does not intend to present any witnesses to testify in this matter, however they reserve the right to call witnesses as may be warranted upon proper notice to Your Honor and the parties.

E. Issues

The primary issue to be addressed by the witness in this proceeding will be whether PECO's plan as proposed will provide the benefits to the competitive market. At present, IGS generally supports the positions advocated by the Retail Energy Supply Association ("RESA"), of which it is a member. However, it reserves the right to address additional issues or to take its own positions on any issue as warranted by the circumstances. IGS further reserves the right to address other topics and to respond to issues raised in the testimony offered by other parties.

F. Evidence

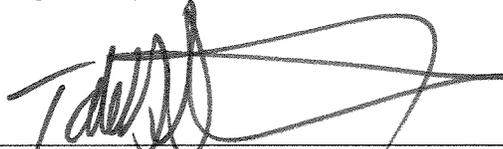

IGS does not presently intend to present the testimony of the witness but reserves the right to offer relevant and probative evidence at its discretion.

G. Settlement

IGS is willing to engage in settlement discussions in an attempt to resolve or narrow the issues in this proceeding, with any and all parties, and suggest that a specific time be provided in the schedule for the parties to engage in such discussions.

WHEREFORE, IGS respectfully submits this Prehearing Conference Memorandum in satisfaction of Your Honor's Prehearing Order dated April 3, 2014.

Respectfully submitted,

Todd S. Stewart
