Dear Ms. Reddinger:

Your informal complaint against Tri-County Transportation, Inc., respondent, in which you alleged that respondent's vehicles are improperly marked, has been investigated by Enforcement Officer Brian Mehus of our Altoona District Office.

On June 29, 2009, Officer Mehus spoke with you regarding your complaint referenced above. At that time you stated that the respondent's vehicles were marked Health Ride and did not mention Tri-County Transportation. Officer Mehus met with the respondent's representative, Bob Koban on July 24, 2009, regarding your complaint. Officer Mehus advised the respondent to apply for the addition of its fictitious name with the Commission. Please be advised that respondent filed an application for addition of a fictitious name of Health Ride Plus for its paratransit service on July 24, 2009. Said application was approved by this Commission on August 10, 2009.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me at the above address or call me at (717) 346-9738.

Alternative forms of this material are available for persons with disabilities, by contacting the Compliance Office at (717) 787-1227.

Sincerely,

Mari Jo Rudy
