Dear Mr. McNulty:

Administrative Law Judge Ember S. Jandebeur issued an Initial Decision in connection with the above application dated July 21, 2006 dismissing the protests filed to the application. The Initial Decision indicated that the matter was to be referred to the Bureau of Transportation and Safety. Exceptions to the Initial Decision were due by August 30. No Exceptions were filed. Please advise me concerning whether this case has been reassigned to the Bureau of Transportation and Safety for preparation of an order approving the transfer of the operating authority to our client.

Very truly yours,

Hi Kay,

By initial decision, the case was referred to BTS for review and report. BTS has not been notified, but the attorney, Bill Gray, called about the status.

Since there are no exceptions or reviews, could the case be re-assigned to BTS? We have the document folder in BTS at this time and we are working on the case.
