Re: Application of Samuel Coraluzzo Co., Inc.:A-00107600 FO01 Am-C

To The Chairman & Members of the Commission:

By letter dated March 5, received today, the undersigned counsel for the above captioned applicant was informed that the Commission had exercised its right to review the above captioned case at Public Meeting.

Having thus been alerted, I again reviewed the Initial Decision issued January 24, 1991 to which no exceptions were filed.

It appears to me that (1) there was a typographical error on page 14 thereof and (2) that the name of one shipper Sun Refining and Marketing had made reference to affiliates and subsidiaries of which there are none.

The page in question - 14 - has been revised by me to correct both of the aforesaid matters.

A copy of the said page 14 is enclosed which has been corrected in the legislative style by bracketing out deletions and underlining additions.

In summary, on the fifth line the second word "form" has been changed to "for" and the reference to affiliates and subsidiaries have been ~~deleted since~~ there are none at the subject terminals.

Re: Application of Samuel Coraluzzo Co., Inc.:A-00107600 F001Am-C

To The Honorable, the Chairman and Commissioners:

You will recall that by letter dated March 5, the undersigned counsel for the above captioned applicant was informed that the Commission had exercised its right to review the above captioned case at Public Meeting.

Thereupon I wrote to all counsel of record advising that certain changes in language were needed and all of the protestants agreed that the changes set forth in my revision of Mar 7, 1991 were acceptable and that a "final order might issue forthwith".

I believe that this matter will be before the Commission at the Public Meeting scheduled for Friday Mar 22 and would appreciate the issuance of a final order at that time since all protests were withdrawn several months ago.

Sincerely,
Louis J. Carter

Enclosed is a copy of the letter which I sent to the Commission last Thursday, March 7th. I believe that the revision made is consistent with our agreement on the basis of which your protest was withdrawn. First, you will note that a typographical error was corrected and, secondly, the reference to Sun's affiliates and subsidiaries is removed. In order to get this matter finally concluded, would you be kind enough to indicate this by signing and returning a copy of this letter. As you know, this application was filed 14 months ago.

Sincerely,
