Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing this letter in response to contact from the PUC regarding my insurance for my transportation vehicle. Due to a billing error my liability insurance for my transportation vehicle that was to be automatically renewed and billed was not. This made my 1st payment a few days late but has already been rectified and is current. I have contacted my insurance company to also send verification that it has been paid and is current. As you can see from my history I have never let my insurance lapse and this time is no different. With this clarification I hope there is no further action required regarding this situation.

Sincerely,

Scott F Stout
