ORDER #7

During the further hearing in this matter, which was held in Harrisburg on August 26, 2003, Verizon's counsel presented the rebuttal testimony of Stanford L. Levin, Ph.D. during the cross examination of OSBA's witness, Allen G. Buckalew (Tr. 463, 464). After some discussion, OSBA's counsel stipulated that Dr. Levin did sponsor this testimony as OSBA's witness in the Formal Investigation to Examine and Establish Updated Universal Service Principles and Policies for Telecommunications Service in the Commonwealth at Docket No. I-00940035 (Tr. 465, 468). OSBA's counsel stated that she did not object to any party citing Dr. Levin's testimony. However, she requested the latitude to be able to cite the recommended decision and the Commission's opinion and order in that matter (Tr. 469, 470). In addition, she requested that the appendices be removed from the testimony (Tr. 470). Consequently, the testimony of Dr. Stanford Levin was marked Verizon Cross Examination Exhibit 10 (Tr. 470).

Verizon's counsel made a motion to have Verizon Cross Examination Exhibit 10 admitted into the record. OSBA's counsel did not object. Since the other counsel did not have a copy of the exhibit, the exhibit was not admitted on August 26, 2003 to allow the other counsel an opportunity to review the exhibit and make objections (Tr. 471).

RJP

By correspondence dated August 27, 2003, Verizon's counsel disseminated copies of Verizon's Cross Examination Exhibit 10. No objections were received.
