Dear Ms. Chiavetta,

on 2 September 2014 I filled out and returned to you a Formal Complaint to Proposed Rate Increase, stating my objections to an increase in electricity rates.

Yesterday I received a document headed "Before the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission" from the office of Dennis J. Buckley, Administrative Law Judge, of which I understood perhaps one word in ten. I am assuming it is asking me to attend further developments in Harrisburg as the hearing, prehearing, or possibly final hearing will be heard. It will not be possible for me to attend at Harrisburg, at any time.

I would like my complaint as outlined in the form I originally sent to you, to be read at these deliberations. There is nothing I can add and nothing I can elaborate on. I can pay no legal counsel to expand on my statements, which I believe are clear and self-explanatory.

Please advise me if there is anything more I need to do.

Yours sincerely,

James A. Schoenecker
