SECRETARY'S BUREAU

Dear Ms. Chiavetta,

I'm herby replying on behalf of my client Hindman & Isaacs Moving & Storage, Inc., in regards to the protest submitted by Weleski Transfer, Inc. against my client obtaining Household Goods Authority from the Commission. I submitted an Application with the Commission back in July of 2014 and received letter shortly after requesting the proper insurance to be filed with the Commission. The Insurance is current and in affect with the Commission's regulations at this time. Shortly after filing the proper insurance I received a letter from the Commission stating that the Household Goods authority would be granted if no protest was submitted by October 14th, 2014. On October 16th, 2014 I received a letter stating that Weleski Transfer, Inc was protesting Hindman & Isaacs Moving & Storage, Inc., from receiving their Household Goods Authority by the Commission. We are hereby requesting that the Commission dismisses this protest on grounds that Weleski Transfer, Inc does not currently hold Authority from the
