SECRETARY'S BUREAU

Purpose of this letter:

Exception of in Alfredo Caraballo vs. PPL Electric Utilities Corporation.

C-2014-2438373

Dear Secretary,

First of all, please allow me to express my appreciation with your Court and your intervention in my case.

It has been my intention to continue payments until I fully pay the sum that is owed. However, PPL's inability to guarentee that they would not cut off my electricity even after full and timely payment led me to file a complaint.

In this regard, during my trial I found out PPL had already given the order for a disconnect.

This would have occurred even after I would have given a complete monthly payment. I do not have to explain to you that havoc that would have cause since as a disabled person I depend on electronic devices and electricity for home heating.

I am requesting that you reveiw several new detail in my case. Since the trial I have spoken to PPL and my energy provider and was told the actual amount owed is $2000 then the said amount..

Sincerely,

Alfredo Caraballo
