Docket No. C-2014-2422736

JAN 22 2015

PA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION
SECRETARY'S BUREAU

Dear Ms. Chiavetta:

Enclosed you will find my attorney IOLTA check in the amount of $2,550.00 as admission and payment regarding the above captioned complaint.

I hope that resolves this matter and that the proceeding will be closed.

On behalf of Plymouth Taxi, I would like the commission to know that this matter involved a single taxi driver who was disregarding Plymouth Taxi's procedures. That driver has been disciplined by Plymouth Taxi, his meter has been calibrated and checked, and Plymouth Taxi is in compliance with all rules and regulations of the commission.

Finally, to the extent this response is beyond twenty days, the fault lies entirely with my law office. Plymouth Taxi had brought this matter to my attention within the relevant time period but my office inadvertently failed to process the paperwork in a prompt matter. The commission has my apologies.

I invite you or your staff to contact me should there be any further issues regarding this matter.

Best regards.

Very truly yours,

James J. Haggerty
