Exceptions

George Gadsden

v.

PECO Energy Company

To Secretary, I thought I had 20 days from date I received letter on 12-27-14. I found out about the Office of Consumer Advocate from Senator Dinniman's office on Wednesday. When I contacted Consumer Advocate I realize the Exceptions should have been mailed Tuesday 13th. I am asking that my Exceptions be accepted even though they are late because I was denied my due process right to testify at the hearing.

Thanks

George Gadsden

I do not agree with the Initial Decision.

1. I showed to the hearings on multiples dates (four hearings) and not permitted to testify completely or at all also, not able to ask questions of PECO. PECO never showed with the proper witnesses who had direct knowledge of the case as a result, the judge was furious at times with PECO and stop the hearings abruptly each time. Finally, I would also add that I am planning to file for CAP.

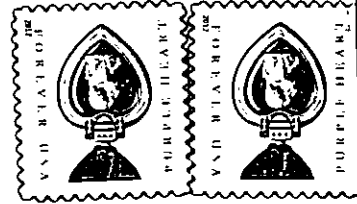

Thanks,

George Gadsden
