EXHIBIT "F"

PECO'S 2015 TARRIF REPORT does include certified teller's and bank checks or cash aka Federal reserve notes all of which are all classified as Monetary Instruments as already outlined (see exhibit " A" attached). These are all commercial paper Debt obligations of the U. S. Government up to and including bonds, promissory notes and sight drafts as indicated and outlined under 18 USC subsection 8. Also PECO'S TARRIF REPORT does not exclude promissory notes.

c) The Company may require that a customer that is not creditworthy tender payment by means of a certified, cashier's, teller's, or bank check, or by wire transfer, or in cash or other immediately available funds.

(d) A customer must pay the undisputed portion of disputed bills under investigation. The Company will apply this rule to the disputed portion of disputed bills, if, and only if: (1) the Company has made diligent and reasonable efforts to investigate and resolve the dispute; (2) the result of the investigation is that the Company determines that the customer's claims are unwarranted or invalid; (3) the Commission and/or the Bureau of Consumer Services has decided a formal or informal complaint in the Company's favor and no timely appeal is filed, and (4) the customer nevertheless continues to dispute the same manner in bad faith.
