Re: Notice of Payment Default and Pending Discontinuance of Service – Pennsylvania

Dear Mr. McAlister:

A - 310898 F7001
A - 310898 F0002

This letter serves as notice that Navigator Communications, LLC (“Navigator”) is in default of its bill payment obligations in Pennsylvania under its interconnection agreement (the “Agreement”) with Verizon Pennsylvania Inc. and Verizon North Inc. (collectively, “Verizon”).

This default arises from Navigator’s failure to pay undisputed past due Verizon charges for resold services. Navigator is now in default with respect to such charges owed to Verizon in the amount of $16,676.48. Attached please find account information current as of July 12, 2006.

Pursuant to § 12 of the Agreement, Verizon has the right, upon 30 days notice to Navigator, to terminate its provision of service if Navigator fails to make timely payment of undisputed amounts. However, the “Local Service Provider Abandonment Process” (the “Abandonment Process”) set forth in Pennsylvania Code Title 52, Chapter 63, Subchapter N §§ 63.301 et seq. provides an extended notice period and other requirements with which Verizon will comply.

Verizon hereby sends this single notice of default and of termination pursuant to § 63.304(d) of the Abandonment Process. Navigator must pay its undisputed past due balance by payment of $16,676.48 on or before August 21, 2006, or Verizon will suspend its acceptance and processing of all service orders to add or change service (except disconnects) on or after August 22, 2006. Moreover, if Navigator still fails to pay this amount on or before September 5, 2006, then Verizon will terminate all services provided under the Agreement on or after September 6, 2006.

Furthermore, pursuant to Section 13 of the Agreement, if Navigator will actually discontinue its customer service for any reason, it is Navigator’s responsibility to provide written notice of such service discontinuance to its customers, Verizon and the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission. Therefore, if Navigator does not intend to cure its defaults, it must ensure that its customers are notified as soon as possible so that they can select an alternate local service carrier.

Verizon reserves all of its rights to exercise any or all of its cumulative remedies, and will continue to exercise any and all available legal rights to collect payment for all services rendered and to limit its risk of accruing additional unpaid service charges. Please contact me immediately to arrange payment in cure of this breach of payment obligations.

Sincerely,

Missy Dean
