ORDER STAYING PROCEEDING

On May 10, 2006, I conducted a status conference in this proceeding. Present and participating through counsel were both parties, DIECA Communications, Inc., t/a Covad Communications Company (Covad) and Verizon Pa, Inc. and Verizon North, Inc. (Verizon) (collectively, the parties). The parties informed me that the consolidated arbitration proceeding at Docket No. P-000422092 has not yet been resolved, and suggested that a further status conference be scheduled within 60 days after completion of that proceeding. They explained that this will allow the parties an opportunity to review the outstanding issues in light of the Commission's decision and any other recent developments that impact the issues to be resolved. They also noted that Verizon will shortly be issuing its template interconnection agreement and that Covad will be reviewing that document.

I agreed to adopt this proposal, with the agreement of both parties that they would attempt in good faith to resolve this proceeding as quickly as possible.

THEREFORE,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. That this proceeding is stayed pending completion of the consolidated arbitration proceeding at Docket No. P-000422092; and

2. That a telephonic status conference be scheduled within 60 days after completion of the consolidated arbitration proceeding at Docket No. P-000422092.
