RE: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by Attorney General Kathleen Kane, Through the Bureau of Consumer Protection and Tanya J. McCloskey, Acting Consumer
Advocate v. IDT Energy, Inc.
Docket No. C-2014-2427657

Dear Judge Cheskis and Judge Barnes:

Please accept this letter as the request of IDT Energy, Inc. ("IDT") to modify the procedural schedule in the above-captioned matter to allow for additional time for the preparation of Rebuttal Testimony and Surrebuttal Testimony.

Pursuant to Procedural Order #4, the expert testimony of the Joint Complainants and Interveners is currently due on April 21, 2015 and IDT's Rebuttal Testimony is due on June 5, 2015. IDT has conferred with counsel for Joint Complainants, the Bureau of Investigation and Enforcement, and the Small Business Advocate, and all have indicated that they have no objection to modifying the procedural schedule as follows:

New due date for Joint Complainants' and Interveners' Expert Testimony: April 30, 2015
New due date for IDT Rebuttal Testimony: July 7, 2015
New due date for Surrebuttal Testimony: August 26, 2015
New due date for Rejoinder Outline: September 3, 2015
New Hearing dates: September 8-11, 2015

IDT has also conferred with counsel for the Anthony Ferrare, who filed a Petition to Intervene in this matter on April 8, 2015. Mr. Ferrare's counsel requested certain conditions regarding the procedural schedule before consenting to the modification. The parties' responses to the Petition to Intervene are not due until April 28, 2015, and IDT's position is that it would be premature to make any determinations regarding Mr. Ferrare's requests until such time as his Petition to Intervene has been ruled upon. Mr. Ferrare will not be prejudiced in any way by the proposed modification to the procedural schedule, because as it stands now, the original deadline for expert testimony will have come and gone by the time that Mr. Ferrare's Petition is ruled upon. Any requests by Mr. Ferrare regarding the procedural schedule can be addressed in due course, if in fact Mr. Ferrare's intervention is granted.

Therefore, in light of the fact that all of the active parties to the case consent to the modification, IDT would request that the procedural schedule in this matter be modified as set forth above. Thank you for your consideration of this request, and please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Best Regards,
